

11 Oct 1833

Dear Sir

I have forwarded Alex<sup>r</sup> the poet Dec 1770.

the 1st Ed<sup>n</sup> of the Stoops to Conquer.
not in my list.

3 Felstoffs wedding. Dec 1766.

3 4 great book the prologue & Epilogue to 1st Ed<sup>n</sup> of clandestine marriage and the Epilogue to the English Merchant, which there were notes in Kemble's hand to <sup>state</sup> ~~report~~ the want of.

I send you a memorandum of some things - perhaps you would look at Thomas Pageant.

I have and him back the Theatrical entertainment.

I am getting uneasy about the trouble you take, and I beg you not to let it be an inconvenience in taking up too much of your time. I shall be very happy to see you any morning

believe me very most truly

Dear Sir -

I know nothing of the picture
it was not Ed Barleytons.

Bakewell better class 1833

J Payne Collins Esq

25 Euston Square

London.
Dunstable

